LZ1 LOUNGE CHAIR

The LZ Lounge Chair is a winner of the 2018 Good Design Award by The Chicago Athenaeum Museum of Architecture and Design and Metropolitan Arts Press Ltd. This chair has good presence, but we kept its profile slim and airy while also using a slightly canted angle. Hand-Dyed tanned leather is wrapped around the powder coated steel frame and then cinched with a corset-style tie using waxed cotton lace. The arms are finished with walnut accents. The LZ1 shown here is brown leather with a black frame and walnut arms.

LZ2 LOUNGE CHAIR

The LZ Lounge Chair is a winner of the 2018 Good Design Award by The Chicago Athenaeum Museum of Architecture and Design and Metropolitan Arts Press Ltd. The LZ2 Chair is built off the same frame as our LZ1 Lounge Chair. We created this variation with the outdoors in mind, but it could easily work indoors as well. We've wrapped marine-grade cotton rope around the black powder coated steel frame to create a comfortable lounging experience. The arms are finished with Mangaris accents. Mangaris is an Indonesian hardwood that is suitable for outdoor use.
